MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director of Central Intelligence

FROM: Chairman

SUBJECT: CIPC Monthly Report - May 1982

1. The CIPC study, Proposals for Upgrading Intelligence Community Efforts Directed Against International Terrorism requested by the Assistant to the President for National Security Affairs, was approved by the Director of Central Intelligence on 20 May 1982 and forwarded to the NSC. The DCI also issued specific instructions to the Chairman of the Interagency Intelligence Committee on Terrorism (IICT) concerning implementation of the recommendations contained in the study. Further dissemination of the study has been delayed pending resolution of an IICT reclama regarding the DCI instructions.

2. The CIPC has no other projects under way at this time.
